

How Far Will You Go For God - Acts 28 - Biblical Discussion

The Acts of the Apostles, also called "The Book of Acts" or simply "Acts", is a historical account of the first 30 years of the Christian church, from the final days of Jesus' ministry on the earth to about 60 AD. Needless to say, a short book cannot cover everything that happened over a period of three decades. The Acts of the Apostles describes some of the highlights, initially from Jerusalem and eventually from the missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul. As a result, the Acts of the Apostles is fast-moving, action-packed and covers quite a bit of geography as well as time. The places mentioned stretch from the modern day Israel, Syria, Lebanon and Turkey to Cyprus, Greece, Malta and Italy. The Acts of the Apostles is a letter to a man named Theophilus written by Luke, the doctor who accompanied Apostle Paul on his missionary journeys and served as his helper and note taker. Luke's role in the Acts of the Apostles can be described as a personal secretary who used his medical training to carefully record what Paul and the other Apostles said and did as inspired by God.

Why was Paul gathering brushwood? Acts 28:3

Did Paul get bit by the viper? Acts 28:3

How often do we draw conclusion base on what we see? Acts 28:4

What are people expecting of you? Acts 28:5

Has your faith proved someone wrong before? Acts 28:5

What are some of the benefits that we get for showing generous hospitality? Acts 28:7-10

How far are you willing to go for God? Acts 28:11-16

Have you been rejected by your own people before? Acts 28:19

What made the people disagreed among themselves and began to leave? Acts 28:25-28

How long did Paul stay in Rome teaching about the kingdom of God? Acts 28:30-31

Why is there no account of Paul standing before Caesar? Acts 1:1, Luke 1:3

